GENERAL INFORMATION

The University Park Art Fair at Grace Park is an arts and fine crafts event showcasing the work of regional artists and the unique atmosphere of Grace Park and the University Park district.

Only original work may be displayed and offered for sale. The work must be attributable solely to the exhibitor.

Artists or their representatives must be with their exhibits during the entirety of the Fair.

It is our exclusive right and responsibility to remove work that is not in compliance. Noncompliance will result in expulsion and ineligibility for future Fair participation.

Ours is a family-oriented event, and exhibits must be in keeping with this atmosphere.

EXHIBIT SPACE

University Park Art Fair at Grace Park spaces are located inside large, clear-span tents; each space measures 10' x 10'. One 8' table and two chairs will be provided. Artist's professional display, including viewing bins, must be contained within this space. An artist may have only one space, with the exception of dual category acceptance. The work of only one exhibitor may be displayed in each assigned space.

A minimum of six pieces must be displayed. The University Park Art Fair at Grace Park retains the right to regulate various aspects of the booth display including, but not limited to, number of pieces of artwork, size/number of bins, and overall placement within the allotted space.

TAX

Each artist is responsible for collecting and reporting sales tax on all sales made during the Show. The current tax rate is 6.25%.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Artists may apply in a maximum of two categories. An artist selected in two categories is committed to display in both categories. Two separate adjacent spaces will be assigned - one for each category. Work in each category may not be combined.

Application by Co-artists: A two-person team producing a single product qualifies as a single exhibitor. However, a team may consist of no more than two members. A description of each member's involvement in the creation of the artwork must be in the Artist Statement, enclosed with the application. Both members of a team must be present at the Festival.

ARTIST STATEMENT

Please enclose an 8 1/2" x 11" Artist Statement describing the technique, materials and processes used in the creation of your entire body of work. Co-artists must describe the collaboration. Every exhibitor must prominently display a copy of their Artist Statement in their booth.

FEES

Please send a check or money order with each application, payable to: UPDC (U.S. currency only). $75 per exhibitor per category. University students with a copy of a valid 2008-09 ID: $25 per exhibitor per category.

PROHIBITED

- Artwork not in submitted and accepted category.
- Any reproductions: commercial or photographic, e.g., offset, gravure, photocopies or commercial publications, including catalogs, note cards, books, etc. The final interpretation of commercial/reproduction status will be made by The University Park Art Fair at Grace Park Committee. (The printed result of plates, stone or screen, that is handcrafted, is considered original work when signed and numbered.)
- Production artwork in any category.
- Artwork reproduced or copied from works of masters, advertisements, commercial or widely circulated photographs or offset prints.
- Work created from kits, picture frames, velvet paintings, manufactured or kit jewelry, candles, art supplies, commercial signage or displays, decoupage and ceramics cast from commercial molds.
- Framing in the Park.
